

MANUFACTURING MATTERS

Manufacturing jobs in California have steadily declined within the past decade

WHY?

- Diminishing Credits / Incentives
- Loss of Investments
- New Regulations
- Public Policy Changes
- Tax Increases

...WHILE NATIONALLY

-34%

OR 627,000 JOBS IS THE AMOUNT OF THE INDUSTRIAL BASE LOST IN CALIFORNIA SINCE 2001

-16.8%

California's manufacturing capital expenditures from the years 2000-2007

2.9%

is California's manufacturing employment growth since 2010

MANUFACTURING JOBS are growing nationwide within the U.S. for the first time since the late 1990s

MANUFACTURING GROWS OUR ECONOMY

An infographic for social media sharing purposes only. Please share responsibly. Created in December 2012 by the Bishop-Wisecarver marketing team (www.bwc.com)

SOURCE: California EDD, Labor Market Information Department; Bureau of Economic Analysis, onway Data, Labor Market Information Department; Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics; The White House, Office of the Press Secretary: <http://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2012/01/25/fact-sheet-president-obama-s-blueprint-support-us-manufacturing-jobs-dis>